Mischa Carr

Biography

Mischa Carr is an undergraduate student at the Royal College of Music, studying piano with Professor Dina Parakhina. She is a Knights of the Round Table Award Holder supported by the John and Marjorie Coultate Scholarship.

When she was five, Mischa began studying the piano. At the age of seven she was accepted into the Junior Guildhall program, being one of the youngest students at the institution. From there, she joined Chethams school of music in 2015, studying with professors Dina Parakhina and Murray McLachlan. During her time at Chethams, she was given the opportunity to perform Mozart's piano concerto No.8 in a masterclass with Sir András Schiff at the Stoller Hall. She has additionally participated in masterclasses with professors such as Christopher Elton, Jean-Efflam Bavouzet, and Fabio Bidini.

Since 2022, Mischa has been studying at the Yehudi Menuhin school with Professor Dinara Klinton. Whilst at YMS, she has performed in venues including the Razumovsky Academy, Kings Place, and the Centro Cultural Villa in Nerja. In Nerja, she performed Chopin's second piano concerto with the Malaga Symphony Orchestra, following being awarded the absolute first prize for solo performance, as well as being a winner of the concerto competition at the International Piano Festival in Malaga. She was additionally invited to perform the same concerto with the Farnham Sinfonia last October. Prior to her time at Menuhin, she had additionally performed in venues such as St. James Hall, the Royal Academy of Music, the National theatre in Slovakia, and Torre de Canyamel in Mallorca.

During this summer, Mischa attended the Lunigiana International Music Festival at which she collaborated and performed Brahms' piano quintet in F minor with the previous concertmaster of the BBC Philharmonic, Yuri Torchinsky. During this course she was awarded a recital in Rome, which she is due to perform in July 2025.

